

We Continue to Serve Despite the Circumstances

Dear brothers, sisters, and friends!

Despite the difficult time Israel is going through, our community continues its ministry.

Assistance continues for new repatriates, low-income families, elderly people, children affected the war, and those who find themselves in difficult life situations.

The charitable canteen continues to operate. We seek to support people with food, clothing, hot meals, practical help, and, of course, human compassion.

Circumstances around us are constantly changing. We hear news of war, live under the threat of new shelling, and face financial and everyday difficulties. But human need does not disappear simply because the times have become hard.

On the contrary, in such periods it is especially important not to stop seeing our neighbor.

The Feasts of the Lord

A TIME OF WORSHIP, REPENTANCE, AND JOY

The autumn feasts of the Lord are a special time when we turn our hearts to God, reflect on His holiness and mercy, and remember that Scripture calls these appointed times the feasts of the Lord.

These appointments are not just holidays of Israel —

"These are the feasts of the Lord, holy convocations, which you shall proclaim at their appointed times."

Leviticus 23:4

These are God-given appointments, given to Israel to remind each generation of His works and faithfulness. For those who believe in Yeshua the Messiah, they have even deeper meaning, because through them we see God's plan of redemption unfold and find its fulfillment in the Messiah.

Psalm 99:2

Yom Kippur — The Day of Atonement

Yom Kippur especially calls us to stop, examine our hearts, and stand before the Lord. About it we read:

*"Afflict your souls...
it is a statute forever."*

Leviticus 16:29-31

This is a time of repentance, reflection, and humility, when we remember the seriousness of sin and how much we need God's mercy, forgiveness, and cleansing.

In ancient Israel, the high priest entered the Most Holy Place once a year with the blood of sacrifices, making atonement for the sins of the people. This served as a powerful reminder of the cost of sin and the holiness of God.

For those who believe in Yeshua, Yom Kippur reveals an even deeper reality — the atonement through the Messiah. The writer of Hebrews explains:

"Not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood, He entered once for all into the holy place and obtained eternal redemption."

Hebrews 9:12

We give thanks to God that in Yeshua we can stand before Him without condemnation, because of His great love, which opened the way to God. We cannot cleanse ourselves or earn eternal life — our hope is in the Messiah, who has done it for us. May these days move us not only to repentance, but also to faith — to trust in His grace, to change our ways, and to draw closer to Him.

*Together to people,
with love, in the name of Messiah!*

Sukkot — A Time of Joy and God's Presence

After the days of reflection and repentance comes Sukkot — a time of joy, gratitude, and the celebration of God's presence. About this feast the Lord said to Israel:

*"Celebrate this feast to the Lord for seven days; it is a statute forever
throughout your generations."*

Leviticus 23:41

And further He explains the meaning of dwelling in booths:

"That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Leviticus 23:43

The temporary dwellings during Sukkot remind us of Israel's journey through the wilderness, when God provided for His people, led them, and sustained them in every need. They teach us dependence on our Creator, who is faithful in every season.

Sukkot is not only a remembrance of the past, but also a celebration of God's presence among His people. Yeshua Himself invited us:

"If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink." John 7:37

In this feast we also glimpse a future hope. Through the prophets, God revealed that one day all nations will come to Jerusalem to worship Him:

*"And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations...
shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts,
and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles."*

Zechariah 14:16

Therefore, Sukkot unites remembrance of God's faithfulness in the past, joy in His present presence, and hope for His coming Kingdom. It is a time to rejoice before the Lord, to give thanks for His faithfulness, and to look forward with expectation to the day when all people will worship Him together and dwell in His Kingdom.

Simchat Torah — Rejoicing in the Torah

Simchat Torah — Rejoicing in the Torah — is connected with the completion of the annual cycle of Torah reading and the beginning of a new one.

It is important to understand that the very name and tradition of Simchat Torah emerged later, but the joy in God's Word at this time goes back to the command given by the Lord — Shemini Atzeret.

The joy in God's Word is deeply rooted in Scripture itself. The Torah reveals God's holiness, His commandments, His character, and His way for man.

David says:

*"Oh, how I love Your law!
It is my meditation all the day."*

Psalm 118:97

And the Lord says through Joshua:

*"This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth,
but you shall meditate in it
day and night."*

Joshua 1:8

We thank God not only for the Torah, but also for all of Scripture, which testifies of Yeshua and reveals God's plan of salvation. Yeshua Himself said:

"Search the Scriptures... they testify of Me."

John 5:39

And at the beginning of the Gospel of John:

*"In the beginning was the Word...
And the Word became flesh
and dwelt among us."*

John 1:1,14

The Old and New Testaments should not be seen as separate or opposing parts, but together they testify of one God, His faithfulness, His promises, and His plan of redemption.

How great a gift it is to have His Word in our hands — to read it, study it, learn from it, and build our lives upon it.

Therefore, our joy in the Torah is not only in a feast or a tradition, but in gratitude to God for the fact that He has not left man in darkness, but has revealed His will and given us His Word, which guides, corrects, strengthens faith, and points us to the Messiah.

May these feasts again inspire each of us to examine our hearts, to study His Word, to cherish God's atonement, to thank Him for Yeshua, to rejoice in His presence, and to love His Word even more.

May our faith be expressed not only in the words and celebrations of certain days, but in a daily desire to know His will, to walk in obedience to Him, and to remain faithful to Him.

*"Your word is a lamp
to my feet and a light
to my path."*

Psalm 118:105

Baptism — A Decision to Leave the Old Life 21.08.2026

New life in Messiah

Baptism is not merely a religious ritual or an external form. It is a serious and conscious decision by a person to leave the former way, to turn away from sin, to devote his or her future life to God, to follow Yeshua the Messiah, and to stand firm in that decision.

Immersed in water, a person testifies of the death to the old life, the desire to live according to God's will, and a return to Him, from whom he or she had turned away.

As the apostle Paul wrote:

*"We were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father,
even so we also should walk in newness of life."*

Romans 6:4

On August 21, 2026, our community joyfully shared this important day with those who entered the waters of baptism and openly testified of their faith in Yeshua the Messiah.

We thank God for each person who took this step of faith, and we pray that they will remain firm not only on the day of baptism, but throughout their entire journey — so that amid trials, temptations, and difficulties, they will continue to walk with God, to grow in faith, to return to His Word, and never abandon the decision they have made to leave the old life.

Pray for Our Pastors and Ministers

We especially ask you to remember in prayer our pastors and ministers who continue to serve our community despite difficult circumstances and a constant burden.

Behind every gathering, prayer, and act of help lies a great amount of unseen labor. It includes responsibility for the community, care for people, visiting and speaking with those in difficulty, helping the needy, organizational and financial responsibilities, and continuing to serve even when their strength is limited and there is little rest.

*We thank God
for their faithfulness,
self-sacrifice, and love
for His people.*

This burden is especially difficult in a time of constant tension, threats of war, and shelling. All of this affects the families, health, and inner condition of our ministers.

Therefore, we ask you to pray for our pastors and ministers — that the Lord would strengthen them spiritually and physically, give them strength in their daily labor, grant them wisdom in decisions, and preserve their families and health.

Scripture says:

*"We ask you, brethren, to recognize those who labor among you,
and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake."*

1 Thessalonians 5:12–13

Israel Under Constant Threat

Life in Israel continues against the background of war and the constant threat of new shelling.

Even in relatively calm days there is an awareness of how quickly everything can change. Many have experienced anxiety, loss, destruction, and the need to leave ordinary life within minutes to seek safety.

These circumstances are especially hard for the elderly, families with children, and those who struggle to reach shelter. This affects the life of our community as well.

Despite the tension and uncertainty, we continue to gather, pray, help those in need, and support those who are struggling.

We pray for the preservation of Israel and its cities, for people in danger, for those who lost loved ones or homes, for the wounded, and for all who need help and support.

Even in difficult times we desire to remain beside one another, continue serving, and do what God has entrusted to us.

"My help is from the Lord, Maker of heaven and earth."

with love, in the name of Messiah!*

and my refuge."*
